PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Impac Mortgage Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") is in the final renegotiations to settle a significant portion of its repurchase liabilities and refinance its remaining warehouse borrowings. The Company is unable to file its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 within the prescribed time period as it anticipates that the outcome of these negotiations could result in changes in and additional disclosures in its December 31, 2007 financial statements. Although the Company will endeavor to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 by the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date for the 10-K, it is unlikely that the Company will be able to do so. The Company intends to file the Form 10-K as soon as practicable.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company anticipates a significant change in its results of operations as it will experience a significantly greater loss for 2007 as compared to 2006. The Company anticipates a loss in the 4th quarter of 2007. With the uncertainty surrounding the final renegotiations to settle a significant portion of its repurchase liabilities and refinance its remaining warehouse borrowings and the current real estate market and credit loss reserves, the Company is compiling additional information from current activity to provide additional support for the Company's estimates at December 31, 2007, and thus the Company is unable to provide at this time a reasonable estimate of the results for the year ended December 31, 2007.
